hello

Belonging- means different things to different people, but we want as many people to connect with creativity as possible

We would be grateful if you would help us on our journey by answering the questions in the presentation via the google form (at the end of this post)

We hope you will want to be part of the conversation. When we have heard from a wide range of people we will be getting in touch with those who filled out the form to talk about next steps.

What does creativity mean to you?

When we talk about creativity what does it mean to you?

What do you think of when people talk of "the arts"?

Does terminology and language really matter?

We need your help

Your voice
matters

We only know what we know, that is why we are asking for your voice to be heard. We want to create an environment where we work together to build a group that can make the changes that work for as many people as possible. We don't know what this looks like at this stage, this will be our journey together to build, design and showcase what it will look like.

What would make the National Centre for Creative Health more inclusive from your point of view?

We need your help

Your voice
matters

Do you feel you belong to the
'Creative Health' sector?

If not what would make you feel that you did?

Are you interested in being involved in conversations about Equality, Diversity Inclusion and Belonging in Creative Health and at the National Centre for
