

Creative Health

Terms of Reference 26th November 2024

- To enable backbench parliamentarians, of all parties and in both Houses, to be informed about significant practice and developments in the field of creative health;
- To examine and discuss relevant government and opposition policies;
- To enable Ministers and others in significant decision-making roles to make presentations and be questioned;
- To provide a forum for regular discussion between politicians, researchers, people with lived experience and practitioners;
- To provide a springboard for parliamentary action, such as debates and questions for oral and written answer.
- To work with other APPGs on areas of shared interest.
- To encourage the evaluation of creative health work and the dissemination of evidence
- To support the sharing of knowledge and information about good practice and facilitate access to creative health provision for the general public